

HR POLICY MANUAL FOR A STARTUP COMPANY

1. INTRODUCTION

This HR Policy Manual outlines the basic guidelines and procedures that employees must follow while working in the organization. The purpose of these policies is to ensure a productive, professional, and positive work environment for all employees.

2. LEAVE POLICY

2.1 Casual Leave

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves per year for personal reasons. Leave requests should be submitted in advance and approved by the reporting manager.

2.2 Sick Leave

Employees may avail up to 10 sick leaves annually. In case of extended illness, medical documentation may be required.

2.3 Earned Leave

Employees earn paid leave based on their period of service. Unused earned leave may be carried forward according to company regulations.

2.4 Emergency Leave

Emergency leave may be granted under special circumstances such as family emergencies or medical situations.

2.5 Leave Approval Process

- Employees must apply for leave through the designated system or manager.
- Managers are responsible for approving or rejecting leave requests.
- Unauthorized absence may result in disciplinary action.

3. CODE OF CONDUCT

3.1 Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to maintain professionalism and integrity in all workplace interactions.

3.2 Respect and Inclusion

The company promotes a workplace free from discrimination, harassment, and bullying. Employees must treat colleagues, clients, and stakeholders with respect.

3.3 Attendance and Punctuality

Employees are expected to report to work on time and fulfill their assigned responsibilities.

3.4 Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential company information, customer data, and intellectual property.

3.5 Use of Company Resources

Company equipment, software, and internet access should be used responsibly and only for authorized purposes.

3.6 Conflict of Interest

Employees should avoid situations that create conflicts between personal interests and company interests.

3.7 Disciplinary Action

Violation of company policies may lead to warnings, suspension, or termination depending on the severity of the misconduct.

4. WORK-FROM-HOME POLICY

4.1 Eligibility

Employees may work remotely with prior approval from their reporting manager.

4.2 Working Hours

Employees must be available during official working hours and remain reachable through approved communication channels.

4.3 Communication Requirements

Employees are expected to: • Attend virtual meetings regularly. • Respond to emails and messages promptly. • Provide daily or weekly work updates.

4.4 Productivity Expectations

Employees must complete assigned tasks within deadlines and maintain expected performance standards.

4.5 Data Security

Employees must: • Use secure internet connections. • Protect company information from unauthorized access. • Follow cybersecurity and password management practices.

4.6 Equipment Usage

Company-provided devices should be used for official work purposes only and handled responsibly.

5. POLICY REVIEW

These policies may be reviewed and updated periodically to meet organizational requirements and legal regulations.

6. CONCLUSION

This HR Policy Manual establishes clear guidelines regarding employee leave, workplace conduct, and remote work practices. Following these policies helps create a positive work environment, improves productivity, and supports organizational growth.